Moein Al Bastaki began his magic career in 2005

His first professional performance was in 2005 for a New Years Eve event in Dubai. Moein Al Bastaki undertook a variety of never before seen tricks with a distinct middle eastern flavor and soon became very popular.

In only a few short years he has established a reputation across the Middle East as a talented and respected magician, illusionist, mentalist and entertainer.

His performances are all about magical moments that thrill spectators and exceed their expectations. Moein was trying to make the performances experiential and memorable by involving the audience.

One of the most popular interactive public performances were the vanishing of the tallest building Burj Khalifa and levitating.

He has been constantly refining his skills with each appearance and later he took his performances to the next level using the power of mind.

Moein Al Bastaki on Television and Radio

He finally began performing on TV and radio, with his first appearance on Sama TV in 2010.

Since then, Moein has appeared on a number of Arabic TV shows, BBC World News, Al Arabia, CNN "Inside The Middle East", MBC TV, Dubai One, Orbit TV, CNBC, Qatar TV and other channels.

In 2015 Moein was featured in a sketch show Kharsha Wo Rabsha where he appeared as an entertainer. A year later in 2016 Moein Al Bastaki became a presenter of WWE BilArabi – both in TV series and radio podcast.

In 2017 Moein Al Bastaki was featured in a documentary. The film depicted nothing from traditional magic. Instead there was a number of experiments designed to show and focus on the power of the mind and how it can be manipulated.

In 2017 after a number of successful TV appearances Moein became a TV presenter of a new weekly Arabic show "WWE Wal3ooaha" airing on OSN Sports Action 1 HD and MBC Action. The programme features the best action and family-friendly entertainment from WWE.

WWE Wal3ooaha show is produced by WWE in Dubai especially for WWE fans in the Middle East.
